

Blood on the Bayou

The people living on Kingswood Bayou don't like outsiders. They don't like people coming to visit or tourists passing through. They especially didn't like it when a rich young couple decided to build a manor on the edge of their bayou. They didn't like the construction. They didn't like having new people around. They didn't like the young couple coming into town.

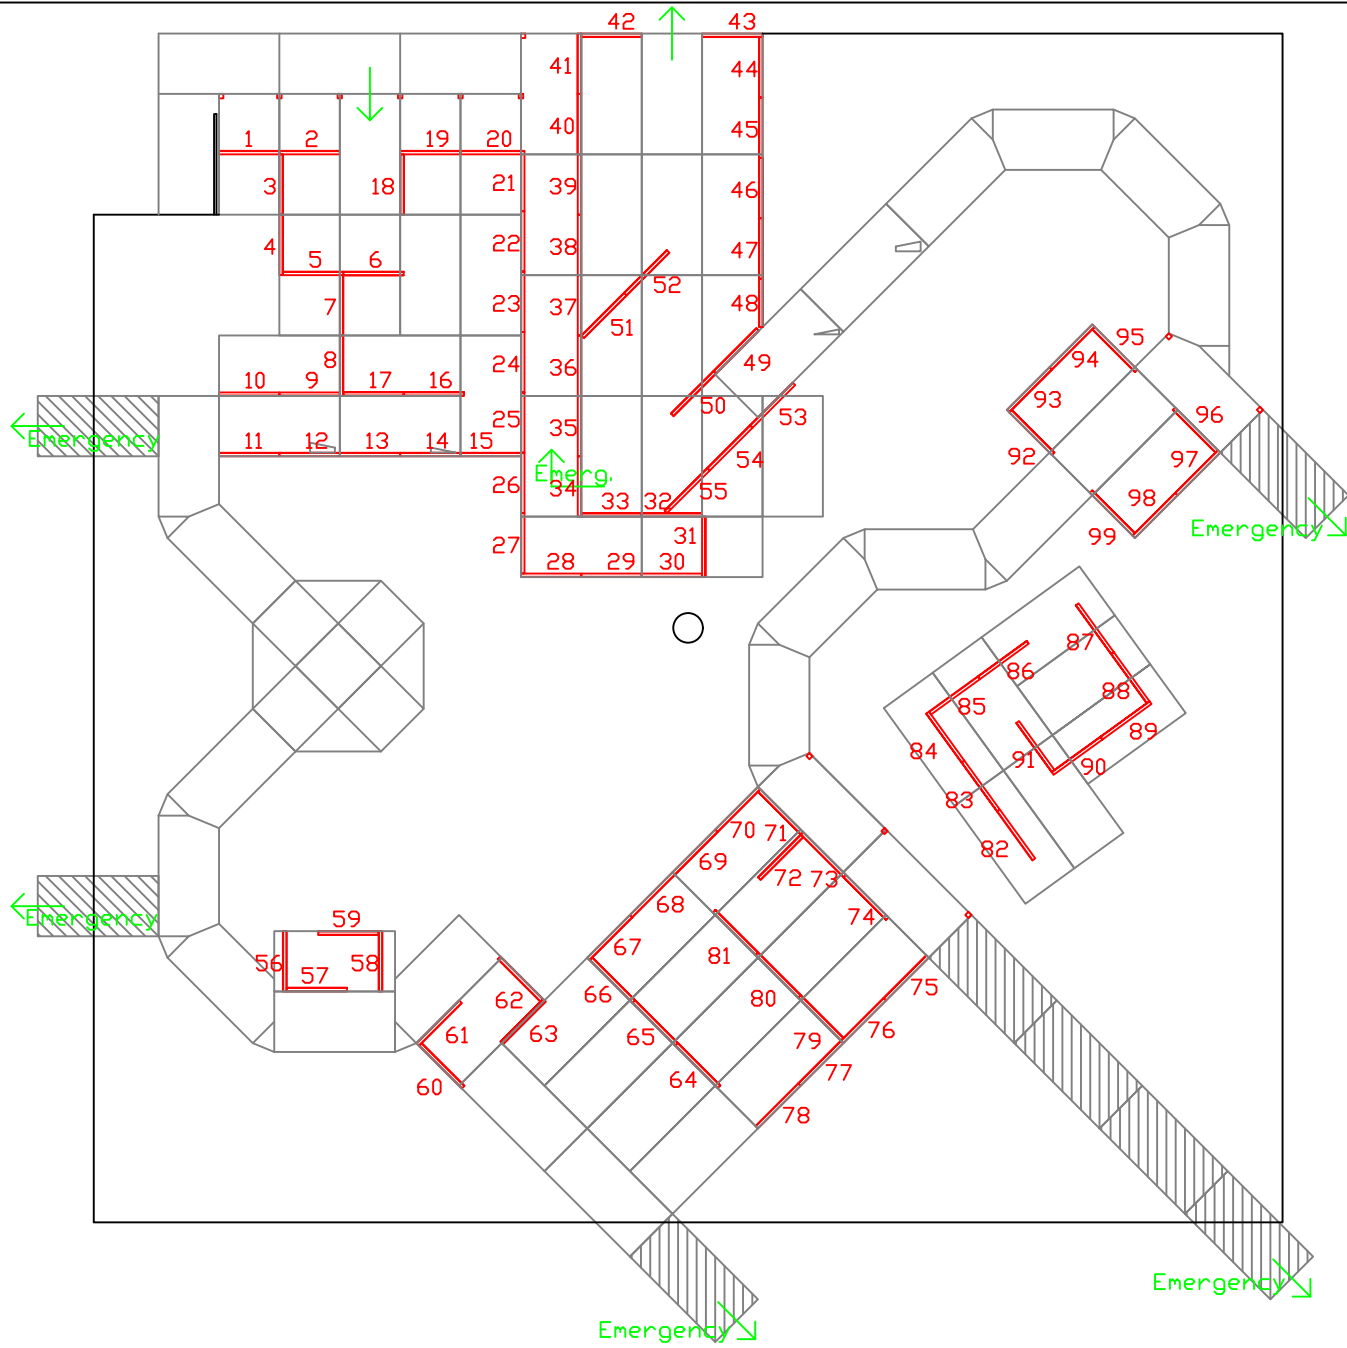

However, they did like the barbeque they had the night the young couple disappeared...
